demands a confrontation with death," Tim explained. "A last look assures us that the person we loved is, indeed, gone forever." Apparently, we also need to be assured that the body will be laid to rest in comfort and peace. The average casket, with its inner-spring mattress and pleated satin lining, is surprisingly roomy and luxurious.

"The last time the Goodbodies decorated was in '59, I believe. It still makes 12 people feel welcome." And so "Goodbody" was not a name made up to attract customers, but the 13 owners' family name. The Goodbody family started the business way back in 1915. Today, they do over five hundred services a year.
