oldest animal on the farm, and the worst tempered. He seldom talked, and when he did, it was usually to make some cynical remark | for instance, he would say that God had given him a tail to keep the flies off, but that he would sooner have had no tail and no flies. Alone among the animals on the farm he never laughed.

What was life like for enslaved people on an 18th-century Virginia farm? A slave is a person who is owned or enslaved by another person. Many colonial Virginia farmers relied on the labor of enslaved African Americans to help work the fields. Each worker could raise about three acres of tobacco, but it was expensive to buy or lease a slave.
